Restaurant: The restaurant is open daily, we serve regional dishes and a traditional cuisine. Feel free to eat without moderation, in the restaurant or on the terrace.

Supermarket: The nearest supermarket is in Woerth, 5 km, with a gas station open 24/7 with payment by credit card.

Uberach: In Uberach you will find various local handicraft products like beer in the "Brasserie Artianale", and "eaux de vies" in the Uberach brandy distillery Hepp. The latter has an Alsacian whiskey of Scottish quality.

Wines: Our wine list offers a wide range of local products and from other regions of France, as well as different quality wines, served by the glass to accompany your dishes respectively.

Woerth: Chief-town of the canton, this is where you will find the museum of the battle of 1870, with a copy of the fresco of Detaille supposed to represent the town hall of Morsbronn-les-Bains during the battle of Morsbronn.

We absolutely recommend you to visit the potteries in the North of Alsace, in villages like Soufflenheim and Betschdorf (Pottery Fortuné Schmitter in Betschdorf)

Last but not least: We recommend you to visit the wine cellar of Cleebourg, fully renovated, they will allow you to taste the grapes grown in the north of Alsace and compare them with vines in the south. It is worth a detour following a visit to the town of Wissembourg.

Zenns and Koessler, those are the surnames of our two chefs who were trained in two of the finest restaurants in the north of Alsace, and who have been faithful collaborators for over 20 years.
